25X1 5. [ ] [ ] accompanied by [ ] and two technical specialists from the office of Security, did a technical sweep of the personal office of Senator Milton Young (R., N. Dak.) in response to the Senator's personal request last week. 25X1

25X1 6. [ ] Talked with Representative Philip Philbin concerning the possibility of hearings on amendments to the Agency Retirement Act. Mr. Philbin said he was very anxious to move this for us and he would check immediately into available dates and coordinate with the full Committee.
He promised to be back in touch on this.

25X1 7. [ ] Met with Representative Dante B. Fascell and his Assistant, John R. Buckley, and briefed them in general on the [ ] trial which begins next Monday. They were most appreciative STAT of this and requested if any developments occur which we feel are of concern to them to please inform Mr. Buckley of them. In turn, if they need further assistance from us they will contact us.

25X1 8. [ ] Talked with Glenn Smith, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, who indicated he had discussed the implications of the Director's appearance before the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy with Senator Jackson who stated he would certainly discuss this with Senator Russell. Senator Jackson also sent out a letter to Senators Stennis, Margaret Chase Smith, and Symington personally urging them to attend the JCAE Subcommittee briefing by the Director next week in their capacities as members of the Nuclear Safeguards Subcommittee of Senate Preparedness.

25X1 9. [ ] Talked with Donald O'Donnell, Senate Government Operations Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations staff, in connection with the letter from Chairman McClellan to the Director. As it turned out, Mr. O'Donnell had prepared this letter for Senator McClellan. I indicated that we were looking into this and wanted to be of every assistance possible.
Mr. O'Donnell said there was no particular priority on a response and he recognized there might be security or other problems and they are perfectly willing to cooperate in handling the information on any basis which we propose including no publication or use thereof in accord with Agency restrictions.
